Job Description

We are seeking a fun person with good organizational, people and communication skills to work alongside our young people, volunteer-leaders and families.

Your main roles include:

- Coordination of the church's children's, youth & family ministry (collaborative planning, organizing, monitoring and implementation of programs etc.)
- Equipping, encouraging, strengthening and relating to our volunteer base
- Developing pastoral relationships with young people and their families

NB: This role does not require that you take the programs every Sunday but it does involve you being enmeshed in our church community.

Who we are looking for

You will be able to work in NZ & comply with police-checking

You will be fun and love having a laugh

You will have a pastoral heart

You can relate across cultures

You will have a mature Christian spiritual faith and love working with others.

You will preferably have some theological/ biblical education (or studying towards it) & experience in planning and implementing children's and/ or youth programs (but not essential).

You will be committed to see a fledgling ministry grow
