

Learning and Development Workgroup

Rev Caleb Hardie

Caleb was ordained in 2002 and is the Minister at Albany Presbyterian Church, where he has been for the past three years having served in parishes in the South Island and the wider Auckland area as well as in School Chaplaincy. He is married to Deborah and together they have four teenage children. Caleb has a strong interest in spiritual growth and the ongoing learning and development of ministers and elders. His background is in education and he considers himself to be a life-long learner.

David McNabb

David McNabb is married to Pam Elgar, current board member of PSN, and lives in Meadowbank, Auckland. They are elders of the St Luke's Presbyterian parish of Remuera-Newmarket and have been members for over 20 years. David is convener of the Community Development Team overseeing the community programme, a member of the choir and was previously on parish council. David's day job is as senior lecturer in social work at Unitec Institute of Technology and he is the national representative on the Board of the International Association of Schools of Social Work.

Rev Vivian Coleman

Vivian Coleman BSc, B Theol, MTS, M Bus.
Rev Viv Services

A god shaped life is a flourishing tree"
Proverbs 11: 28

Hugh Hopkins

Hugh Hopkins is a retired secondary school technology teacher, former graphic design studio manager, and product designer. He converted to Christianity at the age of 32 via an Assemblies of God street outreach program and in 1993 joined Mt Albert Presbyterian church. There he introduced and facilitated the running of several adult Christian education courses including: Alpha, Jesus Lifestyle, God at Work, War Room and God Space.

Learning and Development Associate Members

Rod Watts

After 18 years as a social worker in Australia established an intensive adult rehabilitation hospital for Auckland DHB. Four years later became Manager of the Northern Region for the Disability Directorate, Ministry of Health. From 2006 to mid-2017 he was Chief Executive of Presbyterian Support Northern. Rod commenced the EO role in August 2017 (30 hrs/week).

Rev Dr Emma Keown

Emma has been employed as the Congregational Review Coordinator for the Northern Presbytery for the last 18 months. As of June 2021 her role will be combined with that of Mission Enabler .

She continues to have oversight as called minister to the Glenfield Presbyterian Church.