

Mission Fund Committee

Convenor
John Shadbolt

John was born in England, spent much of his life in South Africa, Zambia and Zimbabwe, with the past 20 years in NZ. He and his wife have three married sons and two granddaughters – all overseas. John's professional background is in Human Resources and Employment relations. He worships at Mairangi and Castor Bays Presbyterian and is co-convenor of the Coastal Region of Northern Presbytery, Convenor of the Mission fund, a member of Property and Finance Committee, and a Council Member.

Cunny Atchison

Cunny Atchison holds the position in Presbytery of Convenor, Property & Finance Workgroup. He is also an associate member of Council and a member of the Mission Fund Committee.

Joanne Bremner

Joanne is an Aucklander, and graduated from Auckland University in German and History. She has a background in teaching - in state and private schools, and in her own education business. She worships at Greyfriars Eden Epsom Presbyterian where she has served as a member of the Property and Finance Teams since 2015, and with the 'Groovy Grannies' in running the 'mainly music' outreach. She values being a member of the Mission Pathways team, in its support for parish mission initiatives and growth.

Malcolm Sproull

Malcolm Sproull moved from a corporate sales and marketing background into the nonprofit sector in 2002. Since then, he has provided fundraising and marketing assistance for numerous nonprofits. Malcolm is an elder and lay preacher in the Papakura East Parish and lives with his wife on a 10-acre lifestyle block in the Hunua Ranges.

Pascal Brown

Pascal was a full-time senior lecturer and researcher at Unitec Institute of Technology, Auckland in TESOL Teacher Education and training migrants in English language and cross-cultural skills (1991 - 2017). He now works as a Property Manager. He attends the Mt Albert Presbyterian church.

Rev Ivan Martinez

Reverend Ivan Martinez is the minister of Somervell Memorial Presbyterian Church, a congregation in Remuera. Prior to joining to Somervell, Reverend Martinez lived in Tokyo, Japan on the pastoral staff team of Tokyo Union Church. Prior to that, he led a student outreach at the University of Otago called Student Soul. Originally from the United States, he has worked in education across the public/private sector, is a trained social worker and a former high school teacher.

Anne Overton

Anne works as the Community Relations Manager for Presbyterian Support Northern. She is responsible for working at the grassroots level to help communities and local Presbyterian churches engage with their local neighbourhoods in different ways. The latest project 'Communities Feeding Communities' is looking at food security to ensure that children and families have access to affordable, nourishing food. Anne is an avid gardener and cook.

Mission Fund Committee Associate Members

Neil Raines

Neil is an Accountant who trained as a chemical engineer. He initially worked for a pharmaceutical company and studied part time for a BCom. He has been Accounting Manager for multinational engineering and chemical companies. His last job before retirement was Commercial Manager for Manukau Water.

Rev Dr Emma Keown

Emma has been employed as the Congregational Review Coordinator for the Northern Presbytery for the last 18 months. As of June 2021 her role will be combined with that of Mission Enabler .

She continues to have oversight as called minister to the Glenfield Presbyterian Church.

Rod Watts

After 18 years as a social worker in Australia established an intensive adult rehabilitation hospital for Auckland DHB. Four years later became Manager of the Northern Region for the Disability Directorate, Ministry of Health. From 2006 to mid-2017 he was Chief Executive of Presbyterian Support Northern. Rod commenced the EO role in August 2017 (30 hrs/week).