

Local pastor, Helensville Community Church

We are seeking someone to pastor Helensville Community Church, which has recently resolved to come under the leadership of Massey-Riverhead Presbyterian Church, with a view to revitalisation and growth. This is initially a half-time (20hrs p.w.) position. We need someone with a deep Christian faith who is Gospel-focused, a good communicator and preacher, able to relate warmly to people of all ages and cultures, visionary, energetic, a good team-player, and able to nurture and grow a healthy church fellowship. There is an excellent modern church building. The appointee will also pastor the church in the smaller community of Kaukapakapa (St Cuthberts). The appointee will work closely with the leadership of the Massey-Riverhead Presbyterian Church, with local leaders, and in keeping with our ethos. Enquiries and applications to Rev Dr Stuart Lange, stuart.m.lange@gmail.com

Children and Family and Community Outreach worker, Helensville Community Church

The purpose of this role is (1) to build a viable children's and families ministry on Sundays at Helensville Community Church, assisting the church to become more family-friendly and multi-generational, and (2) to develop and lead appropriate week-day children's and families programmes and groups which increase relational and missional connections between the church and the wider community.

We are seeking someone who has a deep and lively Christian faith, and who is warmly relational, empathetic and caring, a good communicator and listener, motivated and conscientious, strategic and adaptable, confident and resilient, and a team-player.

This is a part-time (16 hrs p.w.) position, on a fixed term for an initial three years. The appointee will work closely with the local pastor and church people, and under the leadership of Massey-Riverhead Presbyterian Church. ## Church planter, Waimauku

Could you lead a church re-start? Massey-Riverhead Presbyterian Church (<https://www.mpc.org.nz/>) in the growing North West of Auckland is seeking someone to lead a re-start of a church at Waimauku, commencing in the first half of 2024. We are looking for someone who is Gospel-minded, warmly relational, energetic, a good communicator, able to relate to people of all ages and cultures, visionary, a team player, and able to help plant and grow a healthy church fellowship. There is an historic church building (St Martins), an ancillary building, and another envisaged. The appointee will work closely with the ministry staff team of the Massey-Riverhead Presbyterian Church, which the Waimauku church has now become a part of, and in keeping with its ethos. The role is up to half-time (20 hours per week). There is a possibility that this role may be able to be combined with another half-time ministry position nearby. Enquiries and applications to Rev Dr Stuart Lange, stuart.m.lange@gmail.com
